Casa del Mar Beach Resort & Timeshare Aruba – Your own piece of Aruba, a hidden gem

History

If you are a regular visitor to Aruba since the 70's, you probably can recall the Sun Development group, who at that time were way ahead of the times in introducing time-share to Aruba and by using the latest in construction techniques all around the island.

Being pioneers, Sun Development opened the doors of Casa del Mar Beach Resort Phase I, in October 1986. Two-bedroom Presidential suites were presented and well received. Aruba's tourism was taking off and Sun Development was at the helm, with Phase I sold out and demand for more inventory increasing almost daily, July 1987, the second phase of Casa del Mar Beach Resort was announced, and opened in January of 1989, with many existing members buying or upgrading suites in Phase II. With a separate building constructed in 1989, 40 additional one-bedroom suites across the street named the Ambassador Building, were added to Casa del Mar Beach Resort Aruba, which now consists of 147 well-appointed suites in total.

The resort

Where to begin? Casa del Mar Beach Resort in Aruba, where a world famous white sandy beach meets clear blue-green Caribbean water. Whether you are looking for a romantic get-away or family time in the Caribbean filled with fun, water sports and activities, Casa del Mar Beach Resort Aruba has it all and is located on Aruba's top 10 of the world, beautiful Eagle Beach. Casa del Mar offers you "Your own piece of Aruba". With over 37 years of existence, Casa del Mar is one of the most overlooked hidden gems in the low-rise hotel area. Although it can be referred to as a "smaller resort", the accommodations are anything but small.

With different concessionaires and amenities on property such as Matthews Beach Side Restaurant, Santos Coffee with Soul, Clinical Massage Spa, Thrifty Car rental, a recently renovated pickleball and tennis court, two pool areas, Mini Market, Pelican Adventures with in-house concierge services, along with many activities for all ages, the list goes on. In addition, the Alhambra Mall across the street, offers dining and shopping options as well as one of the largest casinos on the island. The resort is surrounded by multiple fine dining restaurants, all within walking distance. The suites themselves are large and luxurious enough to comfortably sleep families of four to six people, depending on suite type. These suites are available to both transient guests and through life-long ownership by timeshare purchase.

Renovations and Re-branding

2022 has been a celebratory year for Casa del Mar Beach Resort, with all 40 Ambassador suites bathrooms being renovated, Casa del Mar Beach Resort & Timeshare is moving their renovations to the 107 two-bedroom Presidential suite bathrooms next. Combining this with a rebranding strategy, redesigning their logo after 37 years, a new website and different branding and marketing strategies they have decided to head for a noticeable change of direction. Looking towards the future of the resort, the next years look extremely bright for Casa del Mar Beach Resort, through their commitment to upgrading and elevating their services, the goal is continuing the prosperity of the past 37 years, well into the future.

What to expect

Experience all that Casa del Mar Beach Resort & Timeshare Aruba has to offer, by booking your next stay with them. You'll experience a warm and welcoming Caribbean ambience with a management team and staff who is always willing to assist with anything you need. Schedule a brief tour without any further obligation with their Sales Agent during your current vacation and receive a free day pass in return with a welcome drink from Matthews Beach Side Restaurant while overlooking the beach. The existing owners who bought their lifetime ownerships in the 80's will greet you with a smile and share stories with you of being part of the "Casa del Mar Family" as the resort and owners always refer to. Many still come to the island with their families or have handed their timeshare down to the next generations, who grew up loving Aruba and continue to bring their kids here to experience the resort and people of this beautiful island.

Buying "Your own piece of Aruba"

Casa del Mar Beach Resort & Timeshare Aruba offers a wide variety of inventory available from ocean fronts, garden side and pool views at starting prices as low as US$ 1500 for a one bedroom renovated suite. With the upcoming renovations of the two-bedroom Presidential suites, we recommend buying in at current listing prices, as the property value is set to increase further after the renovations are complete. By purchasing your preferred week and suite type, you will receive a deed guaranteeing you a lifelong ownership with Casa del Mar Beach Resort & Timeshare Aruba, who currently also offers one of the lowest maintenance fees on the entire island.
